Youth Catches Fox, And Fox Bites Youth

The Peninsula took on a wild, west atmosphere today with the report that a 16-year-old Sequoia High School student had been bitten by a fox—a real, wild fox. School authorities said the boy, Gene Dusevoir, who lives on Coronet Ave., Belmont, caught the animal in a trap and was trying to remove it when it snapped at his hand, lacerating a finger. The boy left the animal in the trap and sought medical aid. The county health department, having no trappers on the staff, sent Veterinarian W. C. McLean to gather in the trapped fox and keep it under observation for the requisite number of days as a safeguard against rabies.

New Pricing Method Gains

Since early August Packard dealers have been pricing cars so that a purchaser knows exactly what he is paying for. It is a move initiated by Packard that has proved successful and is now spreading in the industry.

At the annual meeting and preview of new models at Detroit Aug. 8, distributors and dealers were urged to adopt this new pricing policy.

New price tags with holders are being universally used by Packard sales outlets. They show what the car costs and how this cost is made up. Comments from distributors and dealers have indicated that the pricing policy has been popular and helpful in retailing cars.

"There is no question in our minds but that such a policy makes for better merchandising of automobiles," said M. M. Gilman, Packard's president. "It increases new car volume, we believe, and actually helps rather than hinders in the selling of used cars."

He pointed to some significant results from the policy:

While volume of new car business since the introduction of new models has been more than double that for the corresponding period of 1938, the used car position, both as to inventory and turnover, is improved. On Sept. 30, the used car inventory was only 30 per cent greater than that of Sept. 30, 1938, despite the fact that new car business was more than 100 per cent greater.

"This ought to convince anyone that it is neither necessary nor desirable to add into the selling price of a new automobile any used car allowance, no matter in what guise such allowance is set forth," Gilman declared.

"There is further significance in the fact that we have added 300 dealers since Aug. 8, the date on which we first recommended this new pricing policy."

"While Packard has consistently been opposed to any policy of packing the price of new cars it is undoubtedly true that some of our retail outlets, in common with nearly all other automobile sales places, were somewhat prone to install accessories on a car and add these to the delivered price."

"At our August meeting we told our distributors and dealers we were just as anxious for a good volume of accessory business as they were. We did, however, endeavor to get across the importance of selling the car first and then selling the accessory items."

"It is particularly gratifying to us that we should have established ourselves as the pioneer in this new pricing movement in the industry. The experience

GARBO IN MODERN ROLE

Forsaking such period dramas as "Camille" and "Queen Christina," Greta Garbo now comes to the screen in a sophisticated modern role in "Ninotchka," opening Sunday at the Sequoia Theater. A gay story of a woman's escapade in Paris, the new picture reunites the famed Swedish star with Melvyn Douglas, under the direction of Ernst Lubitsch. "Three Sons" will also be featured on this program.

A. C. Argo Installed In Kiwanis Office

To see their fellow-member installed as lieutenant governor for Division 2 of Kiwanis International's California-Nevada district, 32 members of the Redwood City club Tuesday night went by chartered bus to Oakland where A. C. Argo, a member of the local club, became the head of Kiwanians in 15 Bay Region and Northern California cities. About 250 men attended the meeting in Hotel Lemington.

Argo, Sequoia High School superintendent and a past president of the local service club, was installed by Fred Ewing of San Francisco, a past district governor. Argo succeeds Warren Natwick in the lieutenant governorship.

On behalf of the local club, James P. Hagan, president, accepted custody of a banner to be hung in the club's meeting room indicating that a member of the organization is now lieutenant governor for the division.

Seventy per cent of the seven million U. S. farms produce milk.

we have had makes us feel certain that the entire industry soon will be merchandising on this new, better basis. We are sure it will make for improved business methods. At the same time we are convinced, from our actual experience, that it will result in more profitable operations."

Church, Relatives, Friends Gain From Mrs. Byrne Estate

Mrs. Mary E. Byrne, Woodside native who died Nov. 27 at the age of 72, left an estate valued in excess of $10,000, including real property in Woodside, Oakland, Albany and Berkeley, to relatives, friends and to the Lady of the Wayside Catholic Church at Portola, according to a will filed in superior court here.

The will, dated Oct. 29, 1935, with a July 8, 1933, codicil, was filed by her brother, Atty. Albert T. Shine Sr. of Oakland, executor of the estate. It provided that her Oakland property go to her cousin, May Nolte, who predeceased Mrs. Byrne; that her Albany property go to Mrs. Laura Foley of Oakland, a sister; and that her Berkeley holdings go to Mrs. Theresa Elkins, another sister, Woodside.

She willed her interest in a loan to an Oakland concern to another sister, Mrs. Emma Gilcrest of Palo Alto, and the seven-acre Home Place in Woodside to Shine.

The balance of the Home Ranch, she provided, is to be sold as soon as possible at a fair price, and the proceeds to be distributed as follows:

One-tenth each to the Lady of the Wayside Church; Mrs. M. A. Fox of San Francisco; Sister Annie of Allen Memorial, Mobile, Ala., a sister, Sister Marie Carmel, a niece at Moreland Academy, Watsonville; and Marella J. Mortola, a friend, at Dominican Convent, San Rafael.

Mrs. Byrne willed one-twentieth to each of the following: William H. Shine, brother, Comptchem, Mendocino County; Edward V. Shine, brother, Joseph Elkins, nephew, and Thomas Shine, nephew all of Redwood City; Mrs. Genevieve Nash, niece, San Carlos; Emmet J. Gilcrest, nephew, San Francisco; Evelyn Shine Walther, niece, Sacramento; Carmelita Gilcrest Thomas, niece, Bakersfield; Warren F. Fox, San Francisco, and Jerome Carleton, grandnephew, North Palo Alto.

The codicil provided that $1000 be given to George E. Shine, Redwood City, a brother.

Residue of the estate is to go to Albert Shine.

Hearing of the petition is set for Jan. 8 before Judge Cotton.

Legatee To Share Estate With Relatives

A potential will contest was ended before it could start in superior court here when a daughter who was to receive the entire estate of her father voluntarily agreed that her two sisters and a nephew should share alike with her.

The unusual situation developed in the estate of John Van Heusden, 69, retired Daly City contractor, who left an estate valued in excess of $10,000 to Mrs. Catharina Foreman, Daly City. The will, dated Nov. 8, 1935, made no mention of two other daughters, Ida Hanley and Nellie Dorrance, or of William Higgins, 12, son of a deceased daughter, all of Daly City.

In her petition for letters of administration and probate of the will, Mrs. Foreman recognized the right of the two sisters and the nephew to participate, share and share alike.

R. C. KIWANIS CLUB SPONSORS FREE FOOD SHOW AT THEATER

Of particular interest at this Yuletide season is the announcement made today by Manager Hal Honore of the Fox Sequoia Theater in Redwood City that the Kiwanis Club is sponsoring a free "food show" in his theater next Friday, Dec. 22, at 2 p. m.

The purpose is to accumulate provisions for needy families who are depending upon support from various agencies. It is felt that persons who will be offered several hours of entertainment in exchange for their food offerings will be more willing to donate these "gifts" to the needy than by other means.

As Manager Honore puts it, "Whereas, we open our doors to those who offer only one can of fruit or vegetables, we will not object to anyone bringing in a sack of potatoes, or a case of groceries. After all, the needy folk do not only need assistance on Christmas, but are fearful lest their families might enjoy but one day of festive foodstuffs, only to face a shortage of necessary food during the days to come. It is our aim not only to help the needy this Christmas, but if there are any left-over supplies, the agencies handling distribution of them will be able to make additional offerings in the near future, wherever necessary."

The Kiwanis Club, which already aids underprivileged children, the Sea Scouts, and other worthwhile enterprises, looks forward to this event as a suitable windup of its fiscal year activity as a community group.

Manager Honore, a Kiwanian himself, has already prepared an elaborate program for the affair. By special arrangement with the Paramount Studio, he has secured a top-flight musical picture, which will normally be scheduled for re-release at regular admission prices in many theaters, to be shown at the Sequoia simply for the donation of a can or two of soup, beans, or any other unperishable offering the theatergoer sees fit to put on the food pile.

"Waikiki Wedding," with Bing Crosby, Bob Burns, Martha Raye, Shirley Ross and George Barbier, a one and a half-hour feature, and Walt Disney's latest Donald Duck cartoon, Newseel shots will comprise the film bill. John Shaw, radio and theater organist will come down from San Francisco to render accompaniment at the console of the organ to 20 minutes of community singing.

"If you feel like playing Santa Claus to someone who is depending upon you for help, buy some sort of food gift, and make a date with yourself to spend two hours at the Sequoia Theater next Friday, one week from today, at 2 p. m. You will have a dandy time, and will be doing a good turn in

MENLO PARK NEWS

PARISH HOUSE RAZED

MENLO PARK, Dec. 15.—Demolition of the old parochial residence of the Church of the Nativity began Monday. Two old pioneers of Menlo Park who witnessed its construction in 1878 were present to see the first boards battered down. A new two-story building, to cost $26,000, will replace the old one. Weeden Bros. are the contractors. They are now completing the new gymnasium at St. Joseph's Parochial School at a cost of $6000.

The Church of the Nativity was crowded Monday morning with relatives and friends who had come to attend the funeral services of Anthony Arsenio, who died at Santa Monica last Friday. Burial was in the Holy Cross Cemetery. The deceased was married last June to Miss Beatrice Doyle in the same edifice from which he was buried. Relatives were pall bearers.

Joseph Veverker, the popular station agent, is busy these days selling tickets to students going home for the holiday vacations. The closing of Sacred Heart Academy and Menlo Junior College sends students to all parts of California and the East.

The rainfall of the recent storm was 48 of an inch, making a total of 2.18 inches for the season, as compared with 3.20 inches at this time last year. This is far below normal as the usual rainfall is about six inches. Weather men are predicting heavy rains.

After a six-week visit to friends in Michigan, Mrs. John T. Able, librarian, has returned to her home. She had a most delightful trip.

Mayor Cooper will return today from a visit to relatives in Nebraska, his former home state. The mayor visited a number of cities getting ideas on municipal government.

Leslie Murray, connected with the Tinney Funeral Home in Palo Alto, is confined to his home with an attack of pneumonia. Mr. Murray has many friends in Menlo Park who hope he will soon be convalescent.

Last evening the big municipal Christmas tree on Santa Cruz Ave. drew out a large throng. Santa Claus distributed candy and gifts to the children. A delightful program enlivened the affair, bringing cheer and happiness to the big crowd.

Several flocks of wild pigeons have been seen lately on the Flood Estate. They usually follow a storm and it is predicted by weather prophets that more rain is due in a few days.

The first half of the Christmas program sponsored by the 26th District, American Legion, was given at Veterans' Hospital, Friday, Dec. 8. Isabelle Weeden Lundquist, district chairman, presented Miss Dorothy Roberts of Redwood City, who put on the Christmas review, which will be presented at the Redwood Theater in Redwood City this weekend.

Besides the 60 children in the review there were the following specialties:

Indian toe group, featuring Nancy Christensen; song by Jo and Marcia Buffa; jitterbug four, Marie and Betty Kinney and Richard Angus and Francis Nesley; Apache specialty by Karl and Ethel Hunden; acrobatic tap by Doris Jean Stevens; hula dance by Renee Furtado and Muriel Raame; Irish jig by Jackie Davis and Patsy Bradshaw; can-can by Patsy Marcus; song and tap dance by Ann Kennedy and Patsy McGaffigan; toe rumba by Diane and Claudette Smithee; adagio by Richard Angus and Astrid Willrud; colored group featuring Carla Wallis, Gloria Ward, Marilyn Williams, Dorothy Ashley, Frances Nesley and Billie Foster.

In the Bessemer process, pure iron ore is obtained by blowing a blast of ordinary air on molten pig iron.

The bargain," said Honore. The Superior Ravioli Factory, Hallett's Market and the Union Market have already made substantial donations toward the event, and a mountain of food is already beginning to take shape in the lobby of the theater.

Bowen Heads Exchange Club

At a session at which "bon voyage" was said to Capt. L. F. Bosshardt and his two Junior Mariners who have left for the East to return their new training ship, Redwood City Exchange Club members Tuesday elected officers to serve for 1940.

Named president succeeding Kenneth W. Van Gundy was Kenneth L. Bowen, editor of the Redwood City Tribune. Bowen, a resident of 114 Hudson St., will be installed in January along with other new officers, who are: Dr. Rollo O. La Barge, first vice president, succeeding Bowen; Wilbur H. Duxsee, second vice president, succeeding Dr. La Barge; A. H. Davies, third vice president; Albert J. Terremore Jr., secretary (re-elected); Emil G. Steingger, treasurer, succeeding John J. Garland; Harvey E. Conner, Lloyd W. O'Donnell, John C. Beard and Clement R. Baume, members of the board of control.

Captain Bosshardt, who was accompanied to the meeting by DeWolf Ross and William McFadden, told of their plans to drive East, where they will board the 78-foot schooner White Cloud, recently purchased by Dr. Will Rebec of Belmont, and bring it to Port Redwood City early in the Spring after spending several months at Miami making charter trips.

An Exchange Club flag, to be secured by the club, will be flown by the craft. The club has acted as an unofficial sponsor for the Junior Mariners. Each member present at the meeting signed a scroll which was sealed in a bottle and will be cast into the Caribbean Sea by Captain Bosshardt. Directions were given for returning it to the Redwood City club if found.

Welcomed as a new member at the meeting, held at the Aviation Cafe, was Floyd F. McCue, publisher of the Redwood City Standard.

Entertainment was furnished by Dr. Robert F. Monteth, who sang "God Bless America" and "Wagon Wheels," accompanied by K. B. Towne.

Piece de resistance for the meal were oysters, secured by Steingger and Arthur Blomquist. Next week the club will hold its annual stag Christmas party.

Former Owner Of Paint Shop Is Jailed Here

Edmund C. Seguire, 41, former proprietor of an automobile paint shop in Redwood City, was booked at the county jail here two years after a bad check complaint was issued against him in city police court.

Seguire, according to Dep.
Dist. Atty. Burrell Karmel, cached about $300 in worthless checks just before Christmas of 1937, and left town before the checks could reach the bank four days later.

A year ago Redwood City police located him in Los Angeles, but when Los Angeles police arrested him on the Redwood City warrant they found one of their own against him, also involving checks.

Seguire was jailed for 10 months as a condition to probation, and returned to Redwood City then upon his release. He was accompanied by John A.

Holland, Los Angeles attorney.

As an accommodation to Holland, Seguire was permitted to waive preliminary hearing and appear in superior court immediately. He entered a plea of guilty and a motion for pro-

W. P. Scott's Estate Given Kin, Servants

W. Prescott Scott, mayor of Hillsborough, who died Dec. 1, left the bulk of his estate in trust for his sister, Mrs. Mary Scott Martin, according to terms of his will filed in superior court here. The estate is expected to exceed $100,000.

The will, dated Oct. 11, 1938, provided that each of four domestics employed by Scott at the time of his death receive $100 for each year of service in his employ. The amounts to be paid have not been determined, said George A. Deleau, 253 Oak Ave., Redwood City, Deleau, friend and business associate of the deceased, is one of three executors and trustees. The others are Mrs. Scott and the Crocker First National Bank.

The domestics are Janet Munfrey, housekeeper, Jack Buckley, gardener, Jo Hall, cook, and Yee Gen, houseboy.

An outright gift of $5000 plus household furniture and jewelry is made to the sister, and she is to receive $400 monthly pending administration of the estate.

Remainder of the estate is placed in trust. During her life, Mrs. Martin is to receive the income. At her death the trust is to be distributed to Mr. Scott's three nieces and a nephew, or their survivors.

The 17,000-acre San Mateo County Soil Conservation District, now extending from the San Francisco line to Montara, may be extended to include 25,000 additional acres, according to County Engineer M. A. Grant.

J. H. Kane, soil conservation engineer under Grant, said he had received written requests from about 100 owners asking that their lands be included in the district.

There are about 150,000 acres in the county which could be benefitted by the district, Kane said.

A work plan, calling for planting a million trees in the district, was approved by the district board last week and forwarded to state and national soil conservation experts.

The work will be done, Kane said, by a CCC camp. He pointed out that such a camp, under the administration of U. S. Army reserve officers, houses young men and offers none of the disadvantages found in WPA and SRA camps elsewhere in the county.

$50,000 Suit Faces Exonerated Truck

Peter F. Juster, 41, Salinas truck driver recently found not guilty of reckless driving in connection with a Bayshore Hwy. accident at Willow Rd. Nov. 4. Today faced two personal injury damage suits in superior court totalling $50,000 because of the same mishap. Plaintiffs are Joseph Rosborough, 64, and Alexander Rosborough, 74, injured when Juster's truck hit the automobile in which they were riding. Both men live in Oakland. Joseph Rosborough asks $40,000 for his injuries, Alexander $10,000. Their attorneys are Hildebrand & Bills. Judge E. I. McAuliffe declared Juster not guilty after trial in the criminal case, declaring Juster was guilty of negligence but not recklessness. Co-defendant in the civil suit is W. E. Simas, operating under the name of the Triangle Co., by whom Juster was employed.

105 Receive Citizenship

San Mateo County today boasted 105 new citizens, "graduates" of a naturalization class examined in superior court before Judge Maxwell McNutt over a period of two weeks.

Largest contributors to the class were Redwood City and South San Francisco, with 22 successful candidates each. San Mateo had 10, Burlingame 12. The war apparently had little effect on the make-up of the class. New citizens of Italian birth led in numbers with 40, followed by England with 10, Canada 8, Germany, Switzerland, and Spain with 4 each. Other countries represented were Mexico, Scotland, Finland, Holland, India, Sweden, Ireland, Greece, Armenia, Hungary, Russia (3), Denmark, Norway, France, Portugal, Australia and China.

The newly certificated citizens, with their birthplaces, from this area: Redwood City: Guido Bulleri, Antonio Mussio, Joseph Bruzze, Paul Culazzo, Maddena Toma, Antonio Marzotto, Rina Righello, all natives of Italy; Adela O. Hernandez, Mexico; Doris Raines and Edith May Hearn, England; Lorette P. Lugon, Switzerland; Walter V. Sikala, also known as Walter J. Selson, Finland; Beda C. Gilberg, Sweden; Jose Ruano and Joseph M. Rodriguez, Spain; Rose Alsasser, Hungary; Molly Barthuli, Russia; Gerard H. W.

Vink, Holland; Doris Mary Rolfe and George H. Rolfe, Australia; Harry W. Ramsey, China; Netta Verbeke, Germany. Half Moon Bay: Aurelio Bersuglia, Pietro Guidotti, Pietro Petrocchi, all natives of Italy. Belmont: Patrick J. Kearns, Ireland. San Carlos: Charlotte W. Gagliano, San Francisco. San Gregorio: Mary Azevedo, Massachusetts. In addition, Angelini Carboni, address not given, was repatriated. Pescadero: Angelo Picchi, Italy; Michele Roberti and Ernest E. Muller, both of Switzerland; Julia L. Neves, Pescadero; Samuel Serpa, Portugal. Menlo Park: Elizabeth Neill, Scotland; Felix Bloch, Switzerland; Ramona Paolucci and Teresa P. Leonardi, Italy; Louis Ledesma Jr., Spain; Ruth R. Silmitoe and Maude L. Sherwood, England; Charles Martin, Canada. East Palo Alto: Henry Garton, Canada; Mary Vitale, Italy; Emma E. Petersen, England.

Sequoians Attend Guidance Conference

Eight Sequoia High School student counsellors attended the annual Northern California Guidance Association conference in Berkeley last weekend. They are Principal A. C. Argo and Vice Principals S. S. Mayo and Miss Julianne Wolters, and Counsellors Ann Burns, James M. Eva, Harvey Hall, Mary A. Cowden and Mrs. Eyla Wooldridge. Chief speakers were Dr. Carl Cowdery of Stanford, who reported on the National Vocational Guidance Association, and Dr. Frank N. Freeman of the University of California.

... why not give SANTA CLAUS this gentle hint?

If your Santa Claus is a man, you can hardly expect him to realize how much you'd welcome a Maytag for Christmas. So drop a hint. Point out how a Maytag would relieve you of the week's hardest work. Mention the fact that Maytag is the first choice of American women. You might even remind him that the Maytag is one gift that helps to pay for itself. And tell him to ask about our special Christmas purchase-plan.

Co-ed Makes Solo Flight

PALO ALTO, Dec. 13—Stanford's first co-ed to win her wings under the Civil Aeronautics Authority's aviation program in colleges completed her first solo flight at Palo Alto Airport this afternoon.

She was Martha Nording, 19, junior student registered from Los Angeles.

Miss Nording, a member of Delta Gamma sorority, is one of six girls in the aviation course at Stanford.

In taking a ship into the air alone, Miss Nording became the first girl in the West to solo under the CAA's program, according to Harry White, airport manager. Her instructor was Fred Harvey.

Frank Thomas (Tom) Collins, 23, of Portland, a graduate student, was the first youth in the course to solo. He won his wings last Thursday.

Fruit Firm Executive Dies at Menlo Park

Stricken with a heart attack, Rudolph Sierck, superintendent of the California Fruit Products Co. of San Francisco for more than 40 years, died suddenly on Sunday at his Summer home in Los Trancos Woods, Menlo Park, where he was spending the weekend.

Survivors are the wife, Mrs. Isabella Sierck, and sister, Alina Sierck, San Francisco.

SANTA BRINGS MAGIC SHOW

Boys and girls looking forward to the annual appearance of the Shell Christmas Show will be glad to know that Santa will visit the city soon, accompanied by Joey the Clown and the Wizard of Ark. Traveling in a Magic Ark, they are bringing a complete new entertainment of magic tricks, including the rainbow tube, the disappearing stop-and-go signal and the retreating rabbit, illustrated here. After each performance, gifts will be distributed to all good boys and girls.

ANNUAL PERFORMANCE SET
HERE FOR NEXT THURSDAY

When Santa Claus comes to town, it is news. But when he arrives in a Great Magic Ark with thousands of surprises, it's big news. That is exactly what is going to take place when the new Shell Christmas Show makes its appearance here on Thursday, Dec. 21, in front of the Central School, Broadway, Redwood City.

The huge ark, decked out in all the brilliant colors of the rainbow, is arranged to open out on one side, forming a real stage with theatrical drapes and curtains. The interior setting depicts a wild animal menagerie, featuring cages of lions, tigers, bears, monkeys, giraffes, elephants and other colorful beasts.

Clear Title Is Given To Recreation Center

Purchase of a 25-acre recreation area for Redwood City was assured here with the transfer of title to the tract, located at Bayshore Hwy. and Chestnut St., from the estate of Michael F. O'Dea to San Mateo County Title Co. The purchase is being made through a group of business men who are advancing $11,500. The property was used formerly as an airport.

The United States consumes eight pounds of honey per person each year.

Jury Refuses To Commit Self

Apparently refusing to concur in the accidental death theory, a coroner's jury which late Tuesday heard testimony regarding the death of Policeman Peter Lencioni of Hillsborough returned an open verdict in the unexplained shooting. Meeting in South San Francisco, the jury of six men heard Police Chief Claude J. Hirschey express the opinion that Lencioni accidentally shot himself when he pulled back his right hand to take "drop aim" at a target. Hirschey said he had been informed by a restaurant keeper, Paul Gabriel, that Lencioni recently had demonstrated just how he shot while practicing, and that it was easy to see how the policeman might have shot himself when his foreign-made gun, equipped with a "hair trigger," went off. DOCTOR'S REPORT READ In addition, a report from Dr. James Reinhart, read at the inquest, disclosed that "dark, slaty-colored material which may be powder" was found beneath the skin in the bullet wound. It had previously been established by ballistics experts that the bullet found in Lencioni's head was from his own gun, and this, coupled with Dr. Reinhart's report, indicated that he had been shot from a short distance away, as he would have had he killed himself. At first inclined toward the suicide theory, Chief Hirschey abandoned that idea when Gabriel told him about Lencioni's description of his target practicing. The jury's verdict was that Lencioni "came to his death from a gunshot wound in the head." PRIVATE INQUIRY Attorney Duncan Oneal, who attended the hearing, indicated afterwards further investigation of the murder theory would be pushed privately. It was doubted if Coroner William F. Crosby, who conducted the inquest, or other county or city officials would make any further investigation, since they are convinced Lencioni died an accidental death.

Capt. J. H. Tilton's Mother Passes Away ATHERTON, Dec. 12.—Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the Tinney Funeral Home in Palo Alto for Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Tilton, who died yesterday afternoon at the Monte Vista Ave. home of her son, Capt. John H. Tilton, captain of a trans-Pacific clipper.
